

THE POST.

WILL BE PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY AT LEBANON, KY.,
BY W. W. JACK.

TERMS:—The Post will be furnished
subscribers at the following rates:
One year, in advance, $2 00
If paid within six months, 2 50
At the end of the year, 3 00

Doct's Corner.

For the Post.

The Parting.

It is over, it is past, they have parted for aye,
Have parted to meet here no more,
Each seeking upon life's ocean a way,
To meet on eternity's shore.
Affection once warm, forever is cold,
And vows once strong are now broken,
The dream of life, fond memories old
Are gone, the farewells have been spoken.

No tear from the eye, no sigh from the heart
As coldly they parted forever;
They met, but alas, it was only to part Love's vows and bright dreamings to sever.
And thus it will be forever below
Where hearts are so fickle and cold,
Affection will vanish as quick melting snow
As fast as the heart becomes old.
LEBANON, KY. 1855.

I Would Not Die at All.

I would not die in Spring time,
When flowers begin to crawl,
When calyx buds are shooting up,
And buds begin to swell;
'Tis then the girls are full of charms,
And smile upon the men;
When lambs and ponies are in their prime;
I would not perish then.

I would not die in Summer,
When trees are filled with fruit;
And every sportman has a gun,
The little birds to shoot;
The girls that wear the bloomer dress,
And half distract the men—
It is the time to sweat it out;
I would not perish then.

I would not die in Autumn,
When new mown hay smells sweet,
And the little pigs are rooting round,
For something nice to eat;
'Tis then the funniest wild halloo
Is heard along the glen,
And oysters 'gin to fatten up;
I would not perish then.

I would not die in Winter,
For one might freeze to death;
When blustering breezes sweep around,
And take away one's breath;
When sleigh bells jingle, horses snort,
And buckwheat cakes are tall—
In fact, this is a right good world;
I would not die at all.

Communicated.

For the Post.

GLEANINGS FROM MEMORY.

LEBANON, KY., Oct. 21 1855.

To Will A. M. of Bloomfield, Ky.

Time has passed since you and I remained together and discussed such subjects
as dear friends are wont to discuss. Days, months, have passed away, borne upon the silken wings of receding time, they will never greet us more. Friends around whom our affections were entwined are separated from us and thrown upon the world, steering their frail bark o'er life's troubled sea, hoping at last to find a haven of rest where all will be peace. It is sad to gaze around us and view the change time has wrought. Where are those hearts "so fitly strung to answer back the tones of ours?" Where are they still roaming the world's wide domain subject to its caprices and deceptions, or have they gone down to the silent tomb with all their high hopes and bright anticipations, cut short and blighted by death? Where is that dark-eyed girl who to know was to love? Methinks I now hear her ringing laugh sounding in my ear. In mental vision I see her as she ever appeared to us, gay, joyous and happy. Who would not pray that no cloud of sorrow might ever fall upon her young heart, or dim its joyous flow of spirits?

The bright light in her loving eye,
Could warm the coldest heart.
She has gone from us, Will, and never may our eyes beam with affection upon her again. Her image will ever be enshrined in faithful hearts, and her memory embalmed in the dew-drops of remembrance.

Though absent, still she's ever near,
Enshrined within our memory dear.
Many other bright and fairy forms pass
now before my mind's eye, whose names will ever be sacred in our vocabulary of sweet sounds. You are among them Will.
Day after day their cheering smiles light up your pathway. I am not there Will, but ah, many a thought bursts from this wild, warm heart yearning towards them, asking a place in "memory dear."

The old school "Daniel Boone," brimful of beauty, innocence and truth, stands out upon the canvass and claims a passing notice. Who can tell of the plots and counter plots enacted within its sacred walls against the peace and freedom of gallant sons of old B—? Who shall say how many young hearts fluttered with joy at the approach of some well known step? the sparkling eye—the sunny smile of welcome—who could forget them ever? Peace, happiness and joy—may they ever fill their pathway with fairest flowers, whose freshness and beauty shall outlive time's chilling blasts.

Many happy moments have been ours in old B—. It is a place consecrated to me by many a recollection. The kind-

THE LEBANON POST.

THE PRESS—THE SHIELD OF THE UNION—THE DEFENDER OF EQUAL RIGHTS.

VOL. 3,

LEBANON, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 24, 1855.

NO. 48.

ness of her citizens, whose noble souls
and generous hearts bid the stranger youth welcome, will ever burn bright and clear within the volume of his brain—Around them the purest thoughts of his nature twines, and will ever continue to burn, brighten and glow, as he hopes for a reunion with those whose memories are enshrined in his heart's purest tenement. One year has passed away dear Will, since I was with you. The knell of time has sounded its requiem, and stamped it upon our brow. A new one has been born. We know not what is reserved for us in the dark uncertain future.
Whether our life is to be one of joy and happiness, or grief and despair. Time alone can tell. He will surely unfold our roll of destiny as it is written. We can now look back and realize the hopes that clustered around our hearts in the year just gone. If they have been bright and beautiful, their recollection will please—
if not, their remembrance will sadden
our souls. Still, we have the experience of one more year by which to steer our future's course, and as its precepts impart valuable knowledge, we may use them to advantage in the one before us. We are here now, inhabitants of this beautiful earth, butah, where will we be one year hence? This is a serious question. How many who were with us one year ago, fall of life, and hope and expectation, are now lying pulseless and still in the cold tomb? Ah, in that short era of time the grave has claimed many a victim—has opened its ponderous jaws and received these consigned to its merciless embraces where they sleep a dreamless sleep that knows no awakening until the resurrection morn, when mortality shall put on immortality, and the Angel with one foot upon the sea and the other upon land, swears that "time shall be no more."

This past year from which I date, is replete with startling events. Woes innumerable have desolated our land. The pestilence which "walketh in darkness and striketh at noon-day," has been abroad,
and swept its thousands into eternity.— Want, has stalked forth among us, and anguished cries from shivering tongues
have been heard upon the night's still air.
The home of poverty presents a sad and scene, and it subjects should claim our pity and aid. May the present year be more propitious for them, and may He who "watches the sparrow's fall," take them under his kindly care, and cause joys to brightly bloom where sorrows long have preyed.

But my theme has grown too sad. Remember me friend Will to all within your favored circle. May time rest lightly 'bove their brows, and may joy and happiness
cluster around their path, and their lamp
of life still brightly burn in years to come.
May Heaven's rich blessings shower
To cluster round their spirit's shrine,
May they ne'er know dark sorrow's hour,
Is now a cherished wish of mine.

For the Post.

Letter from a Lady.

SPRINGFIELD, KY. 1855.

MR. JACK:—It is with pleasure indeed that I again welcome to my home, your spicy, and truly interesting paper. You know that I am no politician, yet I must confess I was deeply interested in the issue of the contest which has just closed, and hasten to pay a tribute to you and other editors throughout the land, for the bold and manly course you have pursued,
in resisting measures unjust and illiberal
in the extreme. Fanaticism and bigotry it is true have triumphed—the noble and true principles of toleration and "equal rights" have been defeated, yet we may hope the day not far distant, when our old and chivalrous State will see her error, and repudiate principles so disgraceful to her fair fame. We women it is true are not expected to meddle in the "stern affairs of men," yet, surely, the great political questions which are broached
now-a-days, comes in such "questionable shape," that even they must feel concerned about them. That miserable "test" which is now made a qualification for office—requiring an American citizen to abjure the religion of his heart—strikes deeply indeed at a mother's fond heart. I have two noble boys, and with a mother's instinctive perception, (or perhaps some will call it vanity,) I see genius flashing from their sparkling eyes, and my heart beats with a pride and hope, that they may one day in the ripened flush of manhood, win
a high and honorable place among their fellow men. Bright dreams fill my mind when contemplating the future of these loved ones, as in imagination I see them standing among their countrymen, with the wreath of fame entwined with noble and virtuous deeds about their brows. It is a pleasing dream for a fond parent.
But then, what fears creep over my mind
when I view the present state of affairs,
and think should our country indeed entwine among her sacred and time-honored laws, that miserable "test" of religious opinion as qualification for office, my dreams vanish away, and I see my noble-hearted boys, though ready to offer patriotic hearts in defence of their country's honor, yet, denied a participation in her glorious councils, because forsooth they kneel not at a proscribed altar. It is a sad thought. Then can you say we women have no interest in the tide of affairs which so deeply involve our hopes and happiness. But lest I may become too politically inclined, and may be judged harshly for the outpourings of a mother's hopes and fears for the idols of her heart, I will turn to other things less gloomy.

Last week as you are aware, was our Fair week, and oh what a bustle and stir it occasioned among us! Our usually quiet little village was thronged with visitors. Fine looking men and beautiful women, could be seen passing along the streets, on their way to the Fair Grounds,
"chatting" in gay and pleasant mood.
Happy hearts! May—

Their future's course be ever bright,
And free from dark despair.

We anticipated a "nice" time during our Fair, and were not disappointed. The first day was devoted principally to the exhibition of fancy articles manufactured by the ladies, and I noticed many beautiful specimens of embroidery, quilts, carpeting &c. The premium for wines, was gained by Mrs. D. M. Kelly, of Bard-town. They were highly spoken of, and from the bright light in the eyes of the judges after tasting them, and their sigh
of regret when they were carried away,
would lead one to infer that they deserved the praise. The second and third days were devoted to the men, and the exhibition of their stock. On the second day there was about three thousand people on the Fair grounds. Oh, what a sea of human faces! betraying every shade of character. I noticed many from our own town—beautiful women and gallant men—seemingly deeply interested, and highly pleased with all around them. Several ladies and gentlemen from the Athens of the West, also honored us with their presence. Among them, we noticed the talented editor of the Gazette—looking as spry and gay as a young widower could possibly be expected to look. It is the first time I ever had the pleasure of looking upon his "face divine." He seemed to be quite a favorite among the belles, and I did really hear one of them say he was handsome—I presume she has read his paper, or she might have said "pretly." For myself, I think he has very good features, and only needs free access to a beautiful store of provisions, to make them handsome. At any rate he seems very agreeable.

On Wednesday night, quite a pleasant party came off at the Hotel of Mr. North-craft. Beautiful belles and gallant beaux, engaged in the busy maze of the lively dance, whiled away the passing hours.
Having no doubt but that you will receive a more minute, and interesting account of the progress of the Fair than I could possibly give, I will, wishing you success in your editorial labors, subscribe myself, your friend, S.

Miscellaneous.

VERMONT WIT.—There is a good deal of humor oozing out, from time to time, up among the Green Mountains. The last drop that has reached us, came from a small village not many miles from Bennington.

Old Stokes, after years of toil, got possession of a granite ledge. He was in the habit of buying his powder, with which he quarried the ledge, of one Jonas Archibald, who sold tape, groceries and other varieties in the village store.

Archibald was a good deal of a boaster about his wares, and one evening, while a crowd were sitting around the stove in the tavern bar-room, he addressed Stokes with—

"Well, old Stokes, that's pretty good powder o'mine. I paid a high price for it down in Boston. I can recommend that powder. How do you like it, Stokes?"
"Well," responded Stokes slowly, "it's pretty good powder; but I came near losing that last keg I bought."

"Ah," said Archibald, "how's that?
That's unfortunate."

"Why," responded Stokes, "the confounded keg got a-fire, and I had to go about thirty rods down to the brook before I could put it out."

Archibald took out his watch, believing
it was getting late, and he must go home.

Strange and enviable this power of genius! It cannot only 'give us back the dead in the loveliest looks they were,' but it can give them a loveliness they never possessed; it can dignify the obscure, it can illuminate the dark, it can embalm the de-cayed; and, in its transforming splendor,
the common worm becomes a glow-worm,
the common club a club of fire and glory,
every arch a rainbow, every spark a star, and every star a sun. It can preserve obscure sorrows, and the obscure causes of these sorrows, and hang a splendor in the tears of childhood, and eternize the pathos of these little pangs which rend little hearts.

"Barney, where have you been?"

"To widow Muloney's ball, sure, and an illegitimate time we had of it—four fights in fifteen minutes, and a knock down with the watchmen that left but one whole nose in the house and that belonged to my kettle. Bedad, the likes of it were never seen since we waked old Donal-ly."

Railroad or no Railroad.

The cars are now running from Lebanon to Shepherdsville—and the latter village which, had away in the obscurity of the Salt River vapors, was scarcely conscious of its own existence, now finds itself a place of note and observation—linked to the city of Louisville, and becoming a place of daily resort for her pleasure loving and money-spending citizens. At the last accounts the taverns were crowded and streets enlivened by Louisvillians, rusticiating at the new-found sylvan retreat. Property is advancing throughout the neighborhood, and trade accumulating.

The railroad continues to advance. Not many months will go by ere it will reach New Haven; then in a little while it will sound its whistle through the cedars of Lebanon, arousing old foggydom (if any exist up that way,) from its enervating slumber, and infusing new life to trade and new energy to ambition. Shepherdsville,
New Haven, and Lebanon are all planning their wings for a bold flight into the regions of prosperity, while Bardstown is rooting in the ground, mole-like, and seems content to just vegetate along, "forgetting, and by the way, forgot."

Time and again have we endeavored to agitate the subject of a branch railroad connection with the Louisville and Nashville road; we have shown that the distance is short and the ground favorable;
and have demonstrated the easy ability of our citizens to effect the enterprise, if they would. But in response we can hear only a sleepy grunt as some miserly fellow tightens his hold upon his pocketbook. Our monied citizens seem content
"to sit upon the shirt-tail of progress and hallow it." They pay about as much attention to our exhortations as the an-televians did to Noah—in fact, we are almost inclined to believe that some of those antediluvians resuscitated, after drowning, and settled down in this neighborhood. It is true that history will not bear us out in this notion, but history does detest chronicling everything that ever happened.—Bardstown Gazette.

A PALPABLE HIT.—We heard of a little camp meeting incident yesterday which is entirely too good to be lost.

At a camp-ground, where there was usually a very large audience, there were large handbills posted all around, for a Know-Nothing convention, which bills were headed "SAM IS COMING." At this particular meeting there was but a few of the faithful in attendance, and at the end of the first three days not a sinner had been prayed up to the mountain's bench—the tents on two sides of the ground were still empty, and the laborers of the vineyard were weary with such a slim company and had success;
and although the meeting had been announced to continue for the balance of the week, it was deemed advisable to close on Wednesday. At the closing a faithful brother who had been on the ground with his family from the commencement, said to one of the ministers,
whom he new to be a Know-Nothing,
"Brother —, do you know why all these tents are empty?"
The Rev. brother expressed his astonishment at the failure, but could not account for it. "Well," replied the other,
"do you see that bill, that is a lie. That bill says Sam is coming—that is a lie.
The truth is, Sam has been here."
Wherever Sam's foot-prints are to be found there is no religion.—Evans. Eng.

"A YANKEE QUEEN."—In our Tuesday's paper we copied an article with this heading, which contains some errors of fact, and statements likely to give rise to erroneous inferences. Lucien Murat is the Prince most likely to become King of Naples, but he is not the Florida planter.
His brother Achilles resided and died there some years ago. Madame Achille is at present in the vicinity of Tallahassee, and is a Virginia lady. The Princess Lucien Murat, who was alluded to as "The Yankee Queen," is also an American. She,
however, comes not from Yankee Land,
nor the Everglades of Florida, but from our own city of Charleston. Should she become Queen of Naples, we are assured
she would grace the position, and command the same respect and admiration which is now accorded her in Paris, as the Princess Murat.—Charleston Mercury.

IRISH REVENGE.—During the Irish Rebellion, J. C. Beresford, Esq., a banker, and member of Parliament for Dublin, rendered himself so very obnoxious to the rebels, in consequence of his vigilance in bringing them to punishment, that wherever they found any of his bank notes in plundering a house, the cry was "We'll ruin the rascal—We'll destroy every note of his we can find!" And report says they actually destroyed, it was supposed, upwards of £20,000 of his notes during the rebellion! This is somewhat akin to "biting off one's nose to be revenge of the face." Poor practice, that; but Paddy, even at his best, never did any thing else!

Mule growing has become a source of immense wealth to some of the counties of Indiana. In Putnam last week two hundred thousand dollars worth of mules were sold which were the product of that county alone.

Making His Mark.

A gentleman one Sunday morning watched a country girl on the high road
from the village to the church, and observed that she looked higher and thinner, this way and that, upon the road, as if she had lost her trouble, or some other valuable. The bells were ringing for prayers, and there was no one visible on the road,
except the girl and the gentleman who recognized in her the errand maid of a neighboring farmer. "What are you looking for, my girl?" asked the gentleman, as the damsel continued to pore along the dusty road. She answered gravely, "Sir, I am looking to see if my master be gone to church." Her master had a wooden leg.

A GOOD ONE.—A very good widow lady, who was looked up to by the congregation to which she belonged as an example of piety, contrived to bring her conscience to terms for one little indulgence. She loved Porter, and one day just as she received a half dozen bottles from the man who usually brought her the comforting beverage she (O horror)
saw two of the grave elders of the church approaching her door. She ran the man out of the back way and put the bottles under the bed. The weather was hot, and conversing with her sage friends resolved one of the corks.

"Dear me," exclaimed the good lady,
"there goes that cork; it snapped yesterday just the same way, I must have a new rope provided."

In a few moments, her went another,
followed by the peculiar hiss of escaping liquor. The rope wouldn't do again; but the good lady was not at a loss.

"Dear me," says she, "that black cat of mine must be at some mischief here."
Scat!

Another bottle popped off, and the parter came stealing out from under the curtains.

"O, dear me," said she, "I had forgot it's the yeast! Here Prudence, come take away these bottles of yeast!"—N. O. Pic-une.

THE ELOQUENCE OF MOTION.—Every one has read of the "action, action, action," of Demosthenes, and of what a variety of emotions and passions Rascals could express by mere gestures; let it not be supposed however, that such perfec-tions of art belonged to the ancients only the following anecdote of Wm. C. Preston, is illustrative of our remarks:

"Some years ago, among a thousand others, we were listening to one of his splendid harangues from the stump. Beside us was one, as deaf as a post—in breathless attention, catching, apparently every word that fell from the orator's lips.
Now, the tears of delight would roll down his cheek, and now, in ungovernable ecstasy, he would shout out applause, which might have been mistaken for the noise of a small thunder storm."

At length Preston launched out one of those passages of passive declamation, which those who have heard him know him to be so capable of uttering. In magnificent splendor it was what Byron has described the mountain storms of Jura. Its effect upon the multitude was like a whirlwind. Our deaf friend could contain himself no longer, but bawling into our ears, as if he would blow it open with a tempest, he cried—
"Who's a speaking?"

"Wm. C. Preston!" replied we, as loud as our lungs would let us.

"Who?" inquired he, still louder now than before.

"Wm. C. Preston, of S. C.," replied
we, almost splitting our throat in the effort.

"Well, well," returned he, "I can't hear a word he or you are saying—but great Jericho, don't he do the motions splendid!"

A QUICK REPARTEE.—Gov. Morris, of New York, had a high respect for Bishop Moore, a man noted not only for the purity of his character, but also for the retaining modesty of his disposition, and for the general favor in which he was held.
As the story ran:

A dinner was given by some of Morris's friends, when he was about departing for Europe. Bishop Moore and his wife were of the party. Among other things that passed in conversation, Mr.
Morris said that he had made his will, in prospect of going abroad, and turning to Bishop Moore, said to him—
"My reverend friend, I have bequeathed to you my whole stock of impudence."

Bishop Moore replied—
"Sir, you are not only very kind; but very generous; you have left me by far the greater portion of your estate."

Mrs. Moore immediately added—
"My dear, you have come in possession of your inheritance very soon."

A TOAST BY A PRINTER.—At the Franklin Festival, recently held at Lowell, the following sentiment was proposed,
and most heartily responded to by the company:

"The Printer—The master of all trades.
He beats the farmer with his fast "Hoe,"
the carpenter with his rule and the mason
in setting up tall columns; he surpasses
the lawyer and doctor in attending to his cases, and beats the parson in the management of the Devil."

Terms of Advertising.

For 12 lines or less, 1st insertion, . . . 25
For each subsequent insertion, . . . 15
For half column 6 months, . . . $14
" " " 12 months, . . . 18
For whole column 6 months, . . . 10
" " " 12 months, . . . 28
A liberal deduction made for yearly advertisements. When the number of times for continuing an advertisement is not specified, it will be continued until ordered out and charged accordingly.

JOKING WITH A BARBER.—A correspondent tells us a story of our "Jems," which we intend to tell again for the edification of the public. Stopping for a day or two at a village a short way from Boston, Jems went to a barber's to get shaved. On entering and casting his eyes about the room he perceived that the barber drove the double trade of tonsor and small grocer.

"Shave, sir?" said the barber to his customer, whose face sufficiently indicated the object of his visit.

Jems made no reply, but drawing himself up to a lofty height, in the attorney fashion, to interrogate the barber
as follows:

"Sir, are you the barber?"

"Yes, sir; have a shave?"

"And do you also keep this oyster cellar?"

"Yes, sir; have any oysters?"
"Well, sir; this occupation of yours gives rise to the most horrible suspicions.
It is a serious thing, sir, to submit one's head to the manipulations of a stranger;
but if you can answer a couple of questions to my satisfaction I should like to be shaved."

The barber said he would try.

"Well, sir," said Jems, solemnly, "do you shave with your oyster-knife?"

"No, sir," said the barber, smiling.

"One question more," continued the in-terrogator; "and remember that you are under an oath, or rather, recollect that this is a serious business—(the barber started)—one question more; do you never open oysters with your razor?"

"No, sir," exclaimed the barber, indignantly, amid a roar of laughter from the bystanders.

"Then shave me," said Jems, throwing himself into the chair and untying his neckcloth with the air of a man who has unshaken confidence in human nature.

BOTH HORNS BAD.—The poor tailor, in the following sketch from the New Orleans Crescent City, fared no better on one horn of the dilemma than the other:

"Will you pay me my bill, sir?" said a tailor in Chartres street, to a waggish fellow who had got into him about a foot.

"Do you owe any body anything, sir?"
asked the wag.

"No, sir," said the tailor.

"Then you can afford to wait!" and he walked off.

A day or two afterwards the tailor called again. Our wag was not at his wit's end yet; so turning on his creditor, he says, "Are you in debt with any body?"

"Yes, sir," says the tailor.

"Well, why the devil don't you pay?"

"I have not the money."

"That's just my case, sir. I am glad to see you can appreciate my condition—give us your hand!"

A witty lawyer once jealously asked a boarding house keeper the following question: "If a man gives you five hundred dollars to keep for him, and dies what are you to do? Do you pray for him? No, sir," replied he, "I pray for another like him."

FATAL ONEIDMERE.—How old are ye?"
said Major Kilpin to a dwarfish young man.

"Twenty."

"I wonder you don't fight down a hame of being no bigger; you look like a boy of ten."

"All comes of being a dutiful child."

"How so?"

"When I was ten, father put his hand on my head and said stop there, and he then run away. I've never seen him since and didn't think it right in me to go on growing without his leave!"

A traveler coming to a swollen stream finding a floating log fastened with a grape vine to each shore, but a strong heavy current running between each end of the log and the shore. After spending half a day, and receiving a dozen duckings
in getting over, found nailed upon a post
a placard as follows:—

LEBANON, KY.,

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 24, 1855.

The long looked for, and anxiously awaited decision of the Court of Appeals, in regard to our Branch Railroad, has at last been given in favor of the tax. This fortunate termination of the suit will, we have no doubt, be gratifying to a majority of the citizens of Marion county. The work upon the road, which has been retarded in its progress, by this suit, can now go on with the hope of a speedy termination. It is useless for us to go into a discussion of the great advantages which this road will confer upon Marion county. We have stated them again and again, and we cannot but think, that every one must acknowledge their importance. We feel assured, that when the iron horse shall finally be heard snorting through our beautiful valleys, bearing our commerce away to a good and lucrative market, the last lingering spark of opposition which has been raised against the enterprise, will quickly vanish, and every one will hail with shouts of applause, the swift-winged messenger to our midst. So mote it be.

Our town, wears at the present time quite an industrious aspect. Every body is doing something, and every body has something to do. In fact, this is always the case in Lebanon. Idleness cannot live here; and we venture to say, there is not a town in Kentucky, where the people are more uniformly employed. We are decidedly a progressive go-ahead community. Excelsior is our motto.

Springfield Fair.

We again visited the fair at Springfield on the third day of the exhibition, Thursday. The entire exhibition was extremely fine, and the immense throng took unusual interest in the whole proceedings, as was evinced by the frequent shouts of applause from the stentorian lungs of the sterner sex, and waving of handkerchiefs by the ladies. Never were we more interested in any exhibition, than we were in gazing upon the magnificent animals, and their graceful evolutions. We heard several old fair-goers remark that they had never beheld finer "rings" of animals, than were exhibited there on Thursday, and we firmly believe they had not.

Before the close of the exhibition, the following additional premiums, were offered by individuals; to be awarded at the next annual fair:

W. S. Davidson offers a silver Pitcher worth $30, for the best trotting Gelding.

W. S. Davidson and R. J. Brown, offer a $20 Goblet for the best trotting Mare.

J. R. Hughes & Co., a premium of a $25 Pitcher for the best Boyd McNary Colt.

Milton Rogers & Co., offer $10 for best Horse Colt, and $10 for best Mare Colt of Tom Fletcher's.

Grundy & Minor offer a $25 Pitcher for the best Murdo Colt.

Brown & Davidson offer a premium of $15 for best Jack Colt by Maringo; and $15 for best Jennet Colt, by same.

These additional premiums will prove a decided advantage to the Association, by rendering their next exhibition still more interesting than the one just closed; and the donors deserve a mood of praise for their liberality. Long will the meeting of the first exhibition of the Washington Co. Agricultural Association be remembered, as one of the most pleasant and agreeable periods in the annals of the very pleasant town of Springfield.

We cannot close this article without mentioning the fairer portion of creation, —we mean the ladies, of course. There never was, we presume, assembled together in the interior of Kentucky, such an army of female beauty, as was there displayed. We might point out Miss this, and Mrs. that; until we had filled columns; but we forbear. Suffice it to say it, was decidedly dangerous to confirmed bachelors, let alone susceptible youths and dashing young widowers, such, for instance, as our brothers-in-law, McCarty of the Gazette. We kept him within bounds whilst we were there, or he would, most assuredly, have had an attack of affection of the heart, to which he is most sadly prone. Aside from the very large number of beautiful ladies who live in Washington county; Marion furnished not a few to the lovely galaxy; two or three of whom, we thought the most beautiful on the whole ground—but we won't, we shan't tell who.

Our fair correspondent of Springfield; whose favor will be seen on our first page, has our thanks. We hope to hear from her frequently. Send in your favors a little earlier, as we were slightly inconvenienced in getting the present letter in this week. But of course we don't mind it as it is a lady friend.

We had the pleasure, last week of shaking by the hand, our old friend Dr. Strader, formerly of Louisville. The Dr. is the proprietor of the establishment, negro minstrelsy which was in our town on Thursday last. By the by speaking of the show, puts us in mind; the "Webber Family," whom he has engaged are the best performers we have ever listened to; and Mr. Book, the baritone, can't possibly be excelled. We wish the Dr. and his troupe, the greatest success.

A set of young children went several times around town on Monday night last, making night hideouts with beating upon tin pans, ringing bells and exercising their infantile lungs. Wonder if their maternal progenitors were aware of their absence from the paternal domicile.

The weather for the past few days, has been decidedly winterish. John Frost has made his appearance among us in right good earnest. We hope to see our farming friends soon commence to bring in their fresh meats, as there has been quite a famine in those things, for a month or two past. As the coming winter is likely to prove a very hard one, (and from every indication we would judge that it will,) would it not be wise for our town friends to lay up as large a stock of fuel as they can? As for our own part, we would feel extremely obliged to those who owe us wood if they would haul it in as soon as possible.

Our friend McCarty of the Gazette had the presumption to enter the ring, when a premium was offered for the best looking man. We tried it, of course, when we saw him enter, our native modesty being overcome by our ill-advised ambition. A gentleman by the name of Gabriel Salter, of Garrard county took the premium, and we the certificate, and Mr. Salter walked off with his thumb in his mouth, there being but three entries.

At the present writing, just as we are preparing for press, it is snowing in a very spiteful and wintry manner. What a dreary gloomy day! Just such a day is most fitting for the perpetration of premeditated suicide.

We are prepared to do up all kinds of Job Work upon the shortest notice and upon the most reasonable terms. Bring on your Bills, Pamphlets, Cards, Ball Tickets, Circulars, or anything else in our line.

One of the wharves at New Orleans gave way on the 13th, and sunk down. Part of the freight of the S. F. J. Trubac went down with it, but sustained no damage.

The editor of the Bardstown Gazette, is politely, but emphatically informed, that we have no such animals as "old fogys" in our city. We are decidedly and intensely "Young America"—of that unconquerable and progressive class, who acknowledge not in their vocabulary such a word as "fail." He speaks but truth when he says: "Lebanon is pluming her wings for a bold flight into the regions of prosperity." Such is the ease Mack. We must bid good-bye to you and your little village, but will leave a train of fire to guide you on, that you may not become entirely lost.

We have made arrangements to show the Jack of the Lebanon Post, at the Springfield Fair, and if the judges will act impartially, he will get the cup.—Bardstown Gazette.

The sparin horse of the Gazette was trotted out in the ring on that occasion for exhibition. On examination by the judges, it was thought he had been fed on kags, the hoops being so palpable to the touch. A keg of brandy lately sent to that office by B. R. Clark & Co., having mysteriously disappeared, this discovery of the judges may give some knowledge of its locality. The Gazette horse got neither premium or certificate. He couldn't shine, being too poor to contend with the sleek, good looking entries of Marion and Washington. Having trotted him around the ring, to the great delight of the crowd who was highly amused at his fancy gait, and finding he couldn't even cast a shadow, they ruled him off. We would advise the Bardstown people to send up a better specimen next time.

The Louisville Courier says it is not surprised at the California election going know nothing, as there are, in proportion to population, within her borders, "more ruffians, cut-throats, rascals, and scoundrels, than in any other State."

One live Trimble man is reported to have been elected to the Legislature in Ohio.

The fact of short crops in France and Germany is confirmed, and there is no longer any doubt but that Europe will relieve us of all our surplus of breadstuffs.

The stock of the Galena and Chicago Railroad is fifteen per cent above par.

English Honor and Humanity.

The American vessel that lately returned from Japan to San Francisco, fell in with the English ship, the Albatross, and the two vessels exchanged salutes. The Albatross was the commander of the American vessel to relieve them and take them to a Russian port; and they were "of course" accommodated. A British man-of-war subsequently fell in with the American vessel, and the commander became quite indignant upon learning the fact, and said he would have taken the American vessel if he had caught her with the Russian crew on board.

SPEECH OF JOHN VAN BUREN AT CANTON, N. Y.—The following is a telegraphic account of this speech:

CANTON, N. Y., Oct. 10. "John Van Buren addressed a large meeting at Canton this evening. He commenced by taking up the resolutions of the State Convention of the 29th of August, and proceeded to show that the Democratic party occupied the true position upon all the questions thereon. While he strongly disapproved of the passage of the Nebraska bill, he undertook to show that a faithful execution of its provisions would keep Kansas free. He commended the administration of Franklin Pierce. He referred to the national position of the Democratic party in opposition to the Know Nothings, and said that the security and peace of the country depended upon upholding the Democratic party. He denounced Wm. H. Seward as a mere political agitator. He eulogized Silas Wright, and closed with a strong appeal to the Democracy of St. Lawrence county to unite with the brethren throughout the State in achieving a victory which he pronounced as certain as any future event."

John Forsyth, Esq., the able editor of the Mobile Register, at present on a visit North, writes to his paper from New York: "What I have seen there has all been calculated to make me calm, thoughtful and serious. I find all parties (especially the know nothings, or rather what is left of them) thoroughly abolitionized, and the only living element of fidelity to the Constitution and to the South residing in the Democracy."

NEW SUGAR AND MOLASSES.—By the steamer New Latona, which arrived from the coast yesterday, one hog-head of new sugar and two barrels of new molasses were received from the plantation of L. Bouchereau, Esq., of Ascension. They are the first of the season and were consigned to Hall, Rodd & Putnam. The quality of the sugar is fair grain, and color good, though rather green. The molasses are very fine.—N. O. Pic, 11th.

FROM VICKSBURG.—The Sentinel of the 13th says: "We had a white frost yesterday morning, as we predicted in our paper of Thursday. One or two more such frosts will, we think, restore our town to its usual health, and justify our absent citizens in returning."

WARRENTON.—We are gratified to learn by letter that the fever is abating in this place. There were two deaths on the 9th and one on the 11th.

BRANDON.—The Republican of the 11, says, our town continues healthy; no yellow fever has yet made its appearance.

NATCHEZ.—The President of the Board of Health announces the number of sick in Natchez to be 193 on the 6th inst.

JACKSON.—The Flag of yesterday says, it affords us great pleasure to say, that out of from 100 to 200 cases of yellow fever, there have been only 15 deaths.—Lou. Times.

PRESENTATION OF A MEDAL TO CAPT. INGRAHAM.—On Thursday last, the committee appointed some months since for that purpose, presented to Capt. Ingraham a medal in commemoration of his services in defence of the outraged Kosztz. The presentation took place at the Metropolitan Hotel, in New York.

The medal is of massive gold, and is valued at $144 without the workmanship. Its face represents a portion of the globe, above which floats an eagle rejoicing in the light of the sun, in grasping in his talons the olive and the thunder, the former suspended over America, and the latter ready to be launched at Europe.

It is furnished with suitable inscriptions, representing the objects of the donors. The testimonial is a fine one, and alike creditable to the giver and receiver.

RACHEL AND THE CLERGY.—We find the following paragraph in a letter from New York to Portland State of Maine:

"Rachel, who is effecting miracles—not only drawing everybody to see her once—but she is conquering the objections of the clergy to the theatre, and actually attracting some of them thither. The following are among those who have attended viz: Mr. Chapin, Universalist; Dr. Bellows, Unitarian; Mr. Headley, Presbyterian; Prof. Hackley, Episcopalian, (high church); and Beecher, Orthodox, is also reported as among them."

THE CAPITAL HOTEL RENTED.—The Capital Hotel at FFA STON, was leased yesterday to the highest bidder, for a term of two years. I was struck off to Mr. John T. Roberts, at an annual rent of $4,750.

HEALTH OF MEMPHIS.—The Memphis Appeal, of the 11th inst., says:

We had a good report from the members of the Howard Association yesterday evening. Only two new cases of sickness (not yellow fever) are reported, and the sick generally are doing well. Business is also becoming brisker, and everything begins to wear a more cheerful aspect. The panic, we think, is pretty well at an end.

A NOVEL LAW SUIT.—A curious question for the lawyers has arisen in London. A lady was courted by a gentleman, who promised to marry her, and was accepted, but he did not fulfill his promise and she sued him for the breach. It turned out, however, that he could not marry her because he had a wife living at the time. In answer to the suit he says, "Baskin is willing, but the law won't allow it," and the lady can only demand a fulfillment of his engagement by an act contra bonos mores. The question then arises, "what damage has the lady sustained in not being married to a married man?" There is a subtilty of casuistry suggested by this, which the Chief Baron himself did not like to encounter, and an arbitration was recommended. It is a nut which a Philadelphia lawyer might crack.

The New Orleans Delta, in a recent article, talks very despondingly of the future of that city. It says that New Orleans has approached the crisis of her destiny, when she must make a struggle for existence or succumb to her rivals.

On Monday, the 15th, bids were received for grading and mason work on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, between Bowling Green and Nashville. The Board will meet on the 25th and decide.

RE. REV. BISHOP M'GILL, of the Diocese of Virginia, reached our city on Saturday. He leaves this morning for Bardstown, but will doubtless return in time to preach at the Cathedral on Sabbath next.—Lou. Cou, 23d.

BAROMETERS AFFECTED BY A CANSONADE.—M. Le Maout, the chemist, who has acquired some celebrity at St. Brice, (Cotes du Nord,) his residence for his observations of the barometer, as affected by a distant cannonade, states in the Publicateur of St. Brice, that he announced the cannonade and the assault of Sevastopol from the change affected in the mercury. He adds that it takes an hour and forty minutes to receive the impression of the guns of Sevastopol on barometers in France.

A BROKEN KILLED.—Herman C. Adams, a broker in Milwaukee, was shot in his office on Monday, afternoon, by a German named John Freiner, who came to demand money for another person, which was refused, when he fired a double-barrelled pistol, wounding Adams mortally. Adams died on the night of the 17th.

A cheap food movement has been started in Boston. It is intended to organize an association of citizens to purchase food quietly from the producers, and get rid of the provision dealers whose combination, it is alleged, keeps up prices. A meeting has been held to carry out this design, and a great many facts were presented, seemingly confirming the belief of the existence of such combinations of speculators, aided by accommodations from banking institutions.

A new island has been discovered in the South Pacific ocean, by a Nantucket whaling vessel. It is situated about 150 miles south of Desolation Island, and the ship which encountered it took from it, in less than a week's time, four hundred barrels of sea elephant oil. Two other ships are said to be now in course of preparation to return thither, for the purpose of profiting by this valuable discovery.

The anti-American party has no claim to be called Democratic. It is radical, red republican, but not democratic, as Democracy has been hitherto understood in this country. It may be German Democracy, or Irish Democracy, or Hessian Democracy, but it is certainly not American Democracy. It is emphatically a foreign Democracy.—Lou. Journal.

Let it be what sort of Democracy it may, it is a thousand times better than Know Nothingism with its dark lanterns, impious oaths, bloody rituals, and incendiary footprints.—Lou. Times.

The contest in Mexico appears to be whether the military, as it existed under Santa Anna, shall be maintained or totally abolished. Vidaurri goes for its entire abolishment, and insists it shall have no voice in the formation of a new government, whereas Carrera and Alvarez are for providing for the military. The issue will now be between the people and the military, and the sooner it is decided the better for the country.

THE SPITZENBERGEN SEA.—A gentleman from New London reports having seen a letter from Captain Boyes, of ship Hannibal, of that port, which states that he was about to proceed to the Spitzbergen Sea, in company with a Dutch whaler, to remain frozen in during the winter. He reports the captain of the latter vessel as telling some rather large stories in relation to the success of the fishery on the Spitzbergen ground. They are taken with many grains of allowance by whaling merchants.—New Bedford Standard, 12th.

It is related of the well-known Rev. Dr. John Owens, by many termed the prince of divines, that when he was on his dying bed, awaiting his speedy dissolution, he dictated a short letter to a friend. The amanuensis had written, "I am yet in the land of the living." He at once arrested him, saying: "Stop, alter that; write, I am yet in the land of the dying, but I hope soon to be in the land of the living."

The New York Mirror says: Some irreverent wretch styles Dr. Bellow's new church, near Union Square, "The Church of the Holy Zebra." It is built in alternate layers of red and yellow brick, which gives it a curiously streaked effect, resembling a zebra's coat or raw rock.

OLD ALMANACS AS GOOD AS NEW.—By a strange coincidence, which will not again occur for a long time, the new year of 1855 commenced on the same day as in 1849, and consequently all through the year the date will be on the same day. But what is more singular, all the movable holidays from Septuagesima to Advent fall on the same dates and same days. The Almanacs of 1849 might therefore serve for the present year.

In New York city there are eighty Episcopal clergymen, in Brooklyn twenty-eight, in Philadelphia sixty-six, in Boston twenty-two, in Baltimore twenty-four, in Charleston twenty-one.

THE FEVER AT PORT GIBSON AND GRAND GULF.—The Port Gibson Herald, of Friday last, reports but one death in that place from yellow fever during the week, and adds:

"There have been a number of new cases, but there are none that we can hear of that are dangerously sick, and with proper medical attendance and good nursing, the patient speedily recovers."

In Grand Gulf there had been only one death from fever during the week. The Herald says:

"There have been a few new cases, and all of the sick are nearly well. There are put few persons remaining that are liable to take the disease, and but little more sickness is apprehended."

N. O. Pic, 10th.

The editor of the Cincinnati Gazette is down on the "free love" association. We will not quarrel with him on that point, but it is not refreshing to hear such language as this from a Know-Nothing?

"It is a secret organization; its members have to be initiated, and are sworn not to disclose its obligations; therefore the whole iniquity has not been developed. Enough, however, has leaked out to prove its reproducible character."

Does not this language apply to his own party with even more propriety than to the "free love" association? They are modeled after Know Nothingism, and are infinitely less mischievous than their prototype. Lou. Democrat.

CAUGHT AND CAGED.—A colored fugitive from Louisville, Ky., who had been arrested for negro stealing, or something of that kind, and got off by a forfeiture of his own bond, is now under arrest in this city, awaiting a demand on the part of the Executive of Kentucky, after which, by comity of States, he will be sent back from whence he came.—N. O. Pic, 18th ult.

Michael Morton, a cooper in Cincinnati, in apparent good health, fell down suddenly and expired of disease of the heart. Mr. Dnbs, grave-digger at Norfolk, after burying 2,300 persons, victims of the yellow fever, the last of whom was his wife, has at length himself died of that disease.

Owing to the heavy rains, the cotton received at Memphis is of lower grade than is usual at this season of the year—ranging generally from low middling to middling.

The Melbourne Age states that the common hangman at that place was lately committed to jail for three months for stealing a pair of boots.

Three Mormon preachers, named Ferguson, Scott and Macallister, fresh from the Salt Lake City, have lately made their appearance in Belfast, Ireland, and were daily engaged in propagating their immoral doctrines.

The Albany Atlas, referring to the rumor that Mr. Buchanan is a suitor for the hand of Mrs. Polk, widow of the ex-President, says it is only true so far as this: Mr. B. is a candidate for the place occupied by Mr. Polk a short time before his death.

Two New Orleans provision merchants fought a duel in one of the cemeteries near that city last week. One of the pistols went off and the other didn't. The difficulty originated in one of the parties refusing to touch glasses at a drinking shop.

The Secretary of the Navy has addressed a letter to Commander Hartstein, of the Arctic expedition, complimenting him for his success and fidelity.

From the 1st of January to the 1st of August, 1855, there were 320 murders and lynchings in California. Two persons were lawfully hanged.

The New York Mirror says that it is rumored in that city that Grinnell, McIntire & Co., have received an order for 500,000 barrels of flour from the British Government. This is a pretty large order.

The workmen are still engaged on the tower of the Catholic Cathedral. It rises slowly, but massive and ponderously.—Lou. Times.

FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS.

WE ARE just receiving from the Atlantic Cities, and are now opening a complete assortment of

FALL AND WINTER GOODS: Consisting of Cloths, Cassimeres, English and French Merinos, Satin-striped Delaines, Ladies' Hosiery, and Manillas; Cloak and Dress trimmings of all kinds; Caps, Collars, Swags, Edgings and Insertings; Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes; Hardware and Cutlery; Queens and Glassware; Blankets and Over-Coatings; Groceries &c. Which we will sell cheap for cash or to punctual dealers, payable on the 1st of January 1856.

Those who are indebted to the firm, or any member of it are requested to call and settle. J. W. CHANDLER & CO. Sept. 17th, 55.

New Advertisements.

UNION HOUSE,

A. S. HARDY,

HAVING Recently purchased the House formerly occupied as a Hotel, and more recently as a Boarding School, solicits a liberal share of public patronage. The stand is situated on Main Street, Lebanon, Ky., and is in a retired and pleasant portion of the town. I have re-fitted and re-furnished the entire establishment in a handsome manner, and am now prepared to receive travelers or regular boarders by the day, week, month, or year. My table shall always be furnished with the very best the market can afford; and I intend that my prices shall in all cases shall be liberal. Travelers' horses can always be carefully attended to, as I have made all necessary arrangements to that end, and there will shortly be a large, comfortable and handsome new stable erected on the premises. A. S. HARDY. Oct. 17th 55.

R. R. CLARK, Late of Nelson Co., Ky. T. H. HORSING, Of Louisville.

B. R. CLARK & CO

(Successors to J. R. Montgomery & Co.)

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals;

Window Glass, Glassware, Paints.

MANUFACTURED TOBACCO,

Patent Medicines, Perfumery,

&c., &c., &c.

NO. 509 MAIN STREET, BET. 3D & 4TH.

Louisville, Ky.

WE are now in receipt of a full and well selected stock of Goods in our line, to which we would invite the attention of friends and customers of the late firm, and country Merchants generally; who are solicited to call and examine our stock and prices. It is our intention to offer none but the best articles for sale, and at the lowest rates. We would particularly request attention to our stock of pure WINES and LIQUORS, selected expressly for Medical purposes, and guaranteed pure and of the first quality. We are also the Sole Agents for Kentucky for the sale of Winchester's Kentucky Liniment, a well known and popular remedy; and for SIMPSON'S AROMATIC SCHIDAM JUNIPER SCHNAPS, the best article in the market. B. R. CLARK & CO. Oct. 17th, 55.

THE UNIVERSITY'S FAMILY REMEDIES:

Issued under the Seal, Sanction & Authority of

THE UNIVERSITY OF

FREE MEDICINE

AND

POPULAR KNOWLEDGE,

Chartered by the State of Pennsylvania, April

29th, 1853, with a capital of $100,000,

Mainly for the purpose of arresting the evils of Spurious and worthless Nostrums;

Also to supply the Community with reliable

Remedies whenever a Competent Physician cannot or will not be employed. This Institute has purchased from Dr. JOHN ROWAND, his Celebrated

Rowand's Tonic Mixture,

Known for upwards of twenty-five years as the only sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague, &c.

and his inestimable Remedy for Bowell Complaints;

ROWAND'S COMPOUND SYRUP

OF BLACKBERRY ROOT,

Which highly approved and popular remedies, together with

The University's Remedy for Complaints

of the LUNGS;

The University's Remedy for DYS-

PEPSIA or INDIGESTION;

The University's Remedy for COS-

TIVE BOWELLS;

Also, the University's Almanac may be had, at the Branch Dispensary, or Store of L. H. NOBLE & CO.

Oct. 17th, 55.

NEW AND CHEAP

DRUG STORE.

SANSBURY & BOWMAN,

THE above having located themselves permanently in Lebanon, Ky., wish to inform the public generally, that they are receiving direct from the Eastern Market, a full and complete stock of

DRUGS, MEDICINES, &c.,

Which they offer for sale as low as they can be had in Louisville or any of the Western cities.

We have taken the precaution to select every article, having long been engaged in the Drug and Prescription business, we are fully aware of the great want of fresh and pure drugs and medicines.

We have also made an arrangement with the Eastern Wholesale Druggists and Manufacturers, by which we will be enabled to keep our stock full and complete

The following is an abridged catalogue of our stock, viz:

Drugs, Paints in Oil,

Medicines, Glass,

Paints, Glass Ware,

Oils, Perfumery,

Dye-stuffs, Fancy and Toilet Soaps,

Varnishes, Painters' Brushes,

Medical Brackets, Pure Wines for the sick,

Cordials, Tooth and Hair Brushes,

Breast Pumps, Flavoring Extracts,

Heifer Tests, &c., &c.

Also Patent Medicines of all kinds, together with a large and complete assortment of Stationery; in fact everything usually found in a

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 24, 1855.

Rags! Rags! Rags!!!
Clean Linen and Cotton Rags wanted at this office. The highest price in CASH will be paid for any amount brought.

Notice.
All personal communications to this paper will be hereafter charged as advertisements, and must be paid for, before they can appear. This rule will be adhered to strictly.

—Gen. Woll, when he abandoned Matamoros for the United States, took $75,000 from the military chest to smooth his way.

—The city of St. Louis contributed in all $3,329 for the relief of the Norfolk sufferers.

—A world's boat race is to take place in Narragansett Bay next year.

—On Thursday, Oct. 25th, there will be a total eclipse of the moon.

—J. A. Reynolds, Esq., formerly of the Frankfort Yeoman, has been engaged as local editor of the Cincinnati Sun.

—The Cincinnati Gazette, the leading know nothing and abolition organ in Ohio, claims that the election of Chase is a know nothing victory.

—The Democratic State Convention will be held in Texas, at Austin, on the 18th of January next.

—Joe was seen at Summerville, S. C. on Monday morning last, of the thickness of a quarter of a dollar.

Bishop Doune (Episcopal,) of N. J. has again been arraigned in regard to certain reports greatly inimical to his moral character.

—Mr. G. W. Tilton, of Henry county, Ill., had his pocket picked at the railroad depot, in Chicago, on Saturday night, of $3,000.

—A gentleman passing through the Depot in Buffalo, New York, to take the cars, with an umbrella on his arm, found, after taking his seat, a watch and chain dangling from the whalebones of the umbrella. He had unwittingly picked the pocket of some one.

—Envelopes and stamps to the large amount of ten thousand dollars a month are sold at the Boston Postoffice. A room has been fitted up for this special purpose, and a number of clerks give their whole time to this branch of the business of the office.

—In Camden, N. J., on Friday, Mrs. Briggs attempted to chastise one of her children with a switch, when it was thrown into a spasm, which continued so long that strangulation and death ensued. The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict of "death from asphyxia."

—Snow to the depth of three inches, fell between Wheeling and Cumberland, on Saturday night last.

—The ladies of Philadelphia have formed a "Native Know Nothing Society." This is a good move, as there can be no natives without them.

—A despatch was received in Mobile on Monday last, stating that there had been a heavy frost at Selma, Ala.

—The bark Amazon arrived at Baltimore on Tuesday, from Rio, with a cargo of four thousand bags of Coffee and three days later news.

—The New Orleans Delta says that in more than three thousand cases during the present season, inoculation for the yellow fever has been tested, and with entire success.

—The Democrats will have five members of the Senate, and about twenty-five members of the House in Ohio.

—Thomas Spooner, Esq., President of the "American Order," in Ohio, published a lengthy letter in the Cincinnati Gazette, urgently entreating the members of the order in that State to cast their votes for Chase the Know Nothing Republican, Abolition candidate for Governor.

—The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars will hold its annual session in Perryville, Boyle co., commencing to-day, the 24th.

—Getting Saucy.—Since the fall of Sevastopol, the London Times is again making covert threats of an Alliance of France and England against the United States. They will protect Mexico, it is intimated as they have protected Turkey.

—Snow to the depth of three inches fell on the mountains between Wheeling and Cumberland on Saturday last.

There was a light frost along the Mississippi, near Bayou San, on the 7th inst.

Wm. Campbell, Esq., is a candidate for Door Keeper of the house of Representatives in the next Legislature.

A letter dated Malaga, 16th ult., says that raisins were dearer than they had been for fifteen years, and in consequence many American vessels that had waited for some time for the crop were leaving in ballast. Those that had sailed for the United States only took enough for ballast.

FALL TRADE.
HATS TAPS, AND FUR GOODS.
POLLARD, PRATHER, & SMITH, 455, Main Street, Louisville.

We have made large additions to our manufacturing department, by which we can supply our friends with a better article of goods in our line than ever before, of our own manufacture, and much superior in style and quality to goods bought of jobbers in the Eastern cities.

Our FALL STYLE DRUGS HAT will be far superior to and of a more elegant style than any other sold.

Our stock of SOFT HATS, embracing every color, quality, and style, is very large, and will be sold at greatly reduced prices.

MEN'S AND BOYS' WOOL HATS.—We have the largest stock to be found in any house in the Union.

We are determined to sell our goods to cash customers and prompt-time men cheaper than they can be had of any other house, and by an examination of our stock all will be convinced.

Our stock of goods for the Fall trade has been gotten up under the supervision of the most experienced and practical manufacturers in the country. We obligate ourselves to sell every article in our line at Eastern prices, and guarantee the quality and style to be better.

Sept 5th 2m.

CONSUMPTION.
Successfully Treated by Inhalation of Medicated Vapors.

BY Johnson Stewart Rose, M. D., Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and for years senior Physician in the London Royal Infirmary, for diseases of the lungs.

In this age of progress, Medical Science has contributed her full share to the general welfare; and that which shines resplendent, the brightest jewel in her diadem, is her last and greatest gift, MEDICATED VAPOR INHALATION, in the treatment of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, and kindred affections.

All must see the absurdity of treating Consumption through the stomach, by filling it with nauseous drugs; the disease is not in the stomach, but in the lungs, and by inhaling medicine in the form of Vapor, I supply the remedy directly to the diseased organ. There is, therefore, no case so hopeless that inhalation will not reach. I earnestly appeal to the common sense of all afflicted with lung diseases, to embrace once the advantages of inhalation.

I claim for inhalation in the treatment of consumption, &c. a place amongst the priceless gifts that nature and art has given us, as the only ark of refuge for the Consumptive! A method not only rational, but simple, safe, and efficacious.

I have pleasure in referring to 108 names, residents of New York and neighborhood, who have been restored to vigorous health. About one-third of the above number, according to the patients' own statements were considered hopeless cases.

The inhaling method is soothing, safe, and consists in the administration of medicines in such a manner that they are conveyed into the lungs in the form of vapor, and produce their action at the seat of the disease. Its practical success is destined to revolutionize the opinions of the medical world, and establish the entire CURABILITY of Consumption.

Applicants will please state if they have bled from the lungs, if they have lost flesh, have a cough, night sweats, and fever turns, what and how much they expectorate, what the condition of their stomach and bowels. The Medicines, Apparatus, &c. will be forwarded to my part.

TESTIMONY.

"We, the undersigned, practitioners in medicine, cheerfully recommend Dr. Johnson Stewart Rose's method of treating diseases of the throat and lungs, as the best and most effective ever introduced into medical practice. Our convictions are based upon having several of our own patients, confirmed consumptives, restored to vigorous health after a few months' treatment by Dr. Rose.

In the above named diseases, the application of "Medicated Vapors" inhaled directly into the lungs may be justly considered a great boon to suffering humanity, rendering consumption a perfectly curable disease.

Dr. Rose deserves well of the profession for his strenuous and unwearied exertions in bringing this successful and only reliable method of treating consumption to such a degree of perfection.

Signed,
WAYNE BREWSTER, M. D., New York.
RALPH STOBED, M. D., " "
JONAS A. MOTT, M. D., " "
CYRUS KINGSLEY, M. D., " "
And eleven other eminent practitioners in this and neighboring cities.

TERMS.—Five dollars, consultation fee. Balance of fee payable only when patients report themselves convalescent.

N. B. The new postage law requires that all letters be PREPAID. My correspondence being extensive, applications to ensure replies must enclose postage.

Dr. Rose's Treatise on Consumption—price one dollar. Address
JOHN STEWART ROSE,
Office, 631 Broadway, New York.

*Money letters must be registered by the Post Master; such letters, only, being at my risk. July 12, 1855.

Notice.
TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
I WILL, not most positively, hereafter pay any accounts made by any person, at any place, unless a written order is received for the same, under the hand writing of one of the gentlemen who do business for me in Lebanon.

July 18, 1855.

Stationery.
I have a good supply of STATIONERY, on hand and for sale, such as: FOLSCAP AND LETTER PAPER, NOTE PAPER, PLAIN AND FANCY ENVELOPES, STEEL PENS, &c., &c.

W. W. JACK.

Special Notices.

When death is at the door, the remedy which would have saved life, if administered in time, comes too late. Do not trifle with disease. Rely upon it, that when the stomach will not digest food: when faintness and lassitude pervade the system—when the sleep is disturbed, the appetite feeble, the mind lethargic, the nerves unusually sensitive, and the head confused—rely upon it, that when these symptoms occur, the powers of vitality are failing, and that, unless the mischief is promptly checked, life will be shortened, as well as rendered miserable. Now we know from a mass of testimony, greater than was ever before accumulated in favor of one remedy, that Hood's Sarsaparilla Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. W. Jackson, Philadelphia, will immediately alter, and, in the end, entirely remove all of these disorders as well as a mathematical process will solve a problem. Who, then, will endure the agony, and the risk of life, with health and safety within reach? See advertisement.

INVALIDS recovering from the effects of Fever, Billious Dysentery, or lung continued illness of any kind, will find Carter's Spanish Mixture the only remedy which will relieve their drooping constitutions, expel all bad humors from the blood, excite the liver to a prompt and healthy action, and by its tonic properties, restore the patient to life and vigor.

We can only say TRY IT. A single bottle is worth all the so-called Sarsaparilla in existence. It is not a Mercury, Opium, or any kind of noxious or poisonous drug, and can be given to the youngest infant without hesitation. See the certificates of wonderful cures around the bottles. More than five hundred persons in the city of Richmond, Va., can testify to its good effects. See advertisement.

Dr. Gehegan's Hydropiper.
Is prepared by a regular Physician, and is of purely Vegetable ingredients, he names of which accompany each bottle. It is a pleasant, safe and certain cure for diseases of women. For Kidney Affections, Impurities of the Blood, diseases of the Skin, Dyspepsia and Scrofula it has never had an equal. It is a slight stimulant, and a powerful tonic and alterative. See advertisement.

AYER'S PILLS.
A new and singularly successful remedy for a cure of all Bilious diseases—Constipation, Indigestion, Headache, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fever, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Indigestion, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c., &c. Indeed, very few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not required, and the necessity of such a remedy is so generally felt, that it is a matter of surprise that so few people are acquainted with the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is Ayer's Pills, a safe and reliable family medicine, and one of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and the general public, has shown that it is a reliable family medicine. It is a matter of surprise that so few people are acquainted with the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is Ayer's Pills, a safe and reliable family medicine, and one of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and the general public, has shown that it is a reliable family medicine. It is a matter of surprise that so few people are acquainted with the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is Ayer's Pills, a safe and reliable family medicine, and one of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand.

Among the cures effected by this medicine, we have been enabled to furnish the following list of names, which we are allowed to refer for these facts, are:
PROF. VALENTINE MOTT, the distinguished Surgeon of New York City.
DOCT. A. A. HAYS, Practical Chemist of the Port of Boston, and Geologist for the State of Massachusetts.
IRA L. MOORE, M. D., an eminent Surgeon and Physician, of the City of Lowell, who has long used them in his extensive practice.
H. C. SORCER, Esq., Esq., one of the first merchants in New York City.
C. A. DAVIS, M. D., Sup't and Surgeon of the United States Marine Hospital, at Chelsea, Mass.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred such names, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the certificates of these eminent public men is shown in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obvious. While by the old mode of composition, every medicine is burdened with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities; by this each individual virtue only is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as it is desirable for the curative effect to be present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved, more powerful than to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

GRAVES & THOMAS,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Lebanon, Ky.

WILL Practice in all the Courts of Marion and adjoining Counties, and promptly attend to all business entrusted to their care.

BUENA VISTA.

HAVING recently purchased the justly celebrated Buena Vista Spring, 5 miles South of Lebanon, I would respectfully inform the public generally, that I have refitted the establishment entirely, with new furniture and everything necessary for the comfort and convenience of visitors. And I am now prepared to receive boarders by the day, week, month or during the season; and my charges will be reasonable.

The water of this spring is C. H. bicarbonate, and is by its use, performs several remarkable cures both on those in the neighborhood and those who have visited it from a distance. The situation of the establishment is high, airy, comfortable and healthy; the cottages are comfortable and in every way suitable for invalids.

W. T. PHILLIPS.
April 15th 6m

Carter's Spanish Mixture.
THE GREAT PURIFIER
OF THE BLOOD!
Not a particle of Mercury in it.
LET THE AFFLICTED READ AND PONDER!

An infallible remedy for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obsolete Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Boils, Itch, Acne and Fever, Chronic Sore Throat, Ring Worm, or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and Joints, Stomach Ulcers, Sympathetic Disorders, Lumbago, Spinal Complaints, and all diseases arising from and in urious use of Mercury, Imprudence in life, or impurity of the Blood.

THIS great alterative medicine and Purifier of Blood is now used by thousands of grateful patients from all parts of the United States, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE.

Neuritis, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Urticaria, of the Skin, Liver diseases, Fevers, Erysipelas, Scurvy, and all the various diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are speedily put to flight by using this great and inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, softens the digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the constitution in every disease or broken down by the excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the Ladies, it is incomparably better than all the cosmetics ever used. A few doses of Carter's Spanish Mixture will remove all sallowness of complexion, bring the roses mantling to the cheek, give elasticity to the step, and improve general health in a remarkable degree, beyond all the medicines ever heard of.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this GREAT EOOD PURIFIER.

Call on this agent and get a Circular and Almanac, and read the wonderful cures this truly greatest of all medicines has performed.

None genuine unless signed BENNETT & BEERS, Proprietors, No. 3 New Street, Richmond, Va.; to whom all orders for supplies and agencies must be addressed.

And for sale by L. H. NOBLE, Lebanon; JOHN STARK & SON, Springfield; and by dealers in Medicine generally.

Dr. A. J. Vanderslice.
Late Professor of the Ecole Clinique de Medicine et Pharmacie la Paris.
(A PRACTITIONER FOR TWENTY-NINE YEARS PAST.)

ANNOUNCES to his friends and the public that he continues to devote his time to the curing of the following diseases, viz: Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Fits, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Piles, Fistula, Gout, Rheumatism, Scrofula, White Swelling, Nervous Affections, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, &c., &c.

Dr. Van derlice has met with great success by his peculiar treatment of disease, where other very eminent physicians have failed to produce a cure. To attest his confidence in his own skill and me I, he will undertake the cure of all patients without charge, excepting the cost of the medicine, requiring no fee until after the restora to health.

Diseases of a peculiar character he guarantees to remove radically in a few days without offensive or deleterious medicines. He warrants to all, no matter how severe or long standing the disease, an effectual cure, or he requires no pay. Females suffering with irregularities, nervousness, debility, &c., can be permanently relieved by Dr V.

Invalids in any section of the country, by addressing a letter to him, post paid, and enclosing a fee, can have advice and medicines promptly sent them.

Residence on Preston street, between Green and Walnut. Private office on Floyd street, between Market and Jefferson. Office hours from 8 to 12, A. M., and from 2 to 6 P. M.

Individuals can be accommodated with comfortable rooms, and strict attendance by the Dr. Those coming from a distance who are afflicted would do well to place themselves under his control as that will the more certainly secure his success.

April 25. ff.

LEBANON
MARBLE WORKS!

H. POOL & CO having permanently located in Lebanon, Ky., take pleasure in announcing to the public, that they have just imported a large stock of American and Italian Marble, and are now prepared to fill all orders for Tomb Stone, Monuments, Counters to Bars, Tables and Stand Tops, &c., &c. in the very best style of art at shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms. As we employ none but the best workmen, we warrant all our work to give satisfaction. We solicit a continuance of the public patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, LOWELL, MASS.

Price 25 Cents per Box. Five Boxes for $1.
SOLD BY
L. H. NOBLE, Lebanon,
E. L. Chandler, Campbellville,
J. Stark & Son, Springfield,
And sold by all dealers in Medicines everywhere.

June 13, 34, y

RAGS! RAGS! RAGS!!!
5,000 POUNDS of Rags wanted immediately at this office, for which a liberal price in cash will be paid. Lebanon, Ky., May 5, 1855

BOWLES HOUSE,
THOMAS WELLINGTON,
PROPRIETOR.
LOUISVILLE, KY.
March 7th, 44.

THE VERY FINEST article of LETTER PAPER that the country can afford may be found, low for cash, at the Printing Office.

WINCHESTER'S
KENTUCKY LINIMENT!

WHILE the market is filled with RIVAL LINIMENTS, and the manufacturers of each are bragging and puffing their own articles to the skies as a certain cure for every ailment that afflicts the human system, and decrying all others as base imitations or impostures, the proprietor of the

KENTUCKY LINIMENT
Presents his preparation to the public, not as a cure-all, but as a will tried and valuable remedy entirely different in its composition and much superior to any other in all cases where a Liniment is required.

FOR MAN OR BEAST
It is equally useful, and in particular it is excels every other in its prompt action and superior cleansing properties, producing in all cases a HEALTHY CONDITION AND SPEEDY CURE!!

Sprains, Cuts, Sore Throat, Burns, Neuralgia, and all similar complaints, it cures like magic! and is particularly RECOMMENDED TO THE LADIES, as being—unlike any other Liniment—perfectly free from oil, grease, tar, or anything that soils or stains. In particular its freedom from grease makes it far preferable on the more delicate features, as an application to the human skin.

Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by L. H. NOBLE, Lebanon, Ky., and the principal Drug-gists and Dealers throughout the country. April 13 1853-4.

PROSPECTUS
OF
THE LEBANON POST.

Enough has been said and wrote upon the innumerable advantages arising out of having a newspaper in a County: I will not, therefore, enlarge upon this point. Feeling convinced that the people of Marion wish an establishment of the kind in their county, I have consented, after many solicitations, to make a trial; let us see what will be the result. I had partially made my arrangements to move upon the Ohio river, but if the people of Marion will show, by subscribing liberally for the "POST," that they want a paper, we will succumb to their wishes, and settle amongst them.

THE POST, will be strictly NEUTRAL in Politics and Religion, in all things else perfectly INDEPENDENT, expressing freely the views of the Editor and his Correspondents, on the passing events of the day, local matters, &c. I am decidedly in favor of Railroad communication in Kentucky, being firmly convinced that in that way alone, can our beloved State keep up with the advancement of the age and her older Sister States. I am particularly in favor of a communication of this kind across the State, and thus giving us a direct intercourse with the great southern mart; being convinced that such an intercourse would redound to the benefit of all classes, and that the proposed route through Marion County is the best location in the state, and believe firmly that it can and will be run. We will advocate, conditionally, to the best of our ability, this truly beneficial enterprise and solicit the pens of others.

THE POST, will be dedicated to News, Agriculture, Tales, Poetry, Anecdotes, &c., &c. Nothing shall appear in its columns of a hurtful or demoralizing tendency to the mind; in a word, it shall be a FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

THE POST, will be issued weekly, on every Wednesday, on an imperial sheet at $2 per year in advance, $2 50 if paid in six months, or $3 if the payment is delayed until the end of the year. Wishing to commence on the last of April or the first of May, I would be gratified to receive all of my prospectuses, crowded with names before that time.

W. W. JACK,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Scissoring.

"Will you take something?" said a tea-tender to his friend, while standing near a tavern. "I don't care if I do was the reply. Well said Frank, let's take a walk."

Long words, like long dresses, frequently hide something wrong about the understanding.

Goods Sold Lower.—A merchant in Burlington, Vt., having sunk his shop floor a couple of feet, announces that in consequence of recent improvements, goods will be sold considerably lower than formerly.

Money in your purse will credit you—Wisdom in your head adorn you—but both in your necessity will serve you.

Mrs. Partington wants to know if Syl-vester Pool (Sevastopol) is a brother of Bill Pool whom Baker killed. If he is, she thinks he is a darned sight harder to kill than Bill was.

A western editor, who lives among the mudholes where rocks never grow has been traveling in New Hampshire, and thus writes home to his paper: "All along the route, I noticed great fields of rocks carefully fenced in, for no other reason that I could imagine, than to keep cattle out, and thus prevent their starving to death." Pretty good for a bill and fever subject.

I think it must be somewhere written that the virtue of mothers shall, occasionally, be visited on their children, as well as the sins of fathers.

BAGGAGE MASTERS.—"Minnie Myrtle" closes her last letter to the New York Times, from Saratoga, as follows: "Gentlemen, are such convenient traveling articles! I heard one lady say she married for no other reason than to obtain a baggage master! and he of course married for the sake of the baggage he was to superintend."

"What have you done to further human progress?" asked a sententious philosopher one day to Jenkins. Jenkins' reply was clear and decisive.

"I've procured seven boys and two girls, sir!"

The philosopher departed and for the first time in his life—thought.

A Western editor, speaking of a concert singer, says that her voice is delicious—pure as moonlight, and as tender as a three shilling shirt—Editor's bump of pathos decidedly large!

"You are very stupid, Thomas," said a country teacher to a little boy eight years old. "You are like a donkey and what do they do to cure him of stupidity?" "Why they feed him more and kick him less," said the little urchin.

An old man was sent to the poor-house in Albany, New York a short time since, who had spent a fortune of $20,000 in purchasing lottery tickets.

Why should ladies make better traders and peddlers than men? Kazo they never get shaved.

Jack Bannister, praising the hospitality of the Irish, after one of his trips to the sister kingdom, was asked if he had been in Cork? "No," replied the wit, "but I saw a great many drawings of it."

The following laconic epitaph, carved upon a Spanish tombstone, should be remembered: "I was well—tried to feel better—took physic, and here I am."

A special dispatch to the New York Daily Times, dated Washington Oct. 9, says:

Late instructions to Mr. Buchanan embrace the entire application of the Monroe doctrine, and refer particularly to Dominica, Greytown, Cuba, and the Bay of Islands.

There is little or no doubt that Santa Anna has been in this city for several days, privately quartered at the residence of General Almonte, the Mexican Minister.

RETURNED.—We understand that a negro man belonging to Mr. King, of this county, who made his escape to Canada about a year since, returned to his home a few days since, perfectly satisfied that Canada is no place for a darkie. He longed to get back to his "Old Kentucky Home."—Carrollton (Ky.) Times.

ABBREVIATIONS.—"Peter Squills. Lesson on abbreviations."

"All hunc, sir."

"Tee the line. What does A.B. stand for?"

"Arch Bachelors."

"Wrong, but I'll try you further—A.D."

"Apple Dumplings."

"Ob! you wretch—B. D.?"

"Bull Dogs."

"There it is again. Once more—L. L. D."

"Lazy, Lounging, Doctor."

"Peter, you'll be the death of me; try E. G."

"English Grammar."

"Well, have it your own way—N. S."

"Number Six."

"U. S.?"

"Uncle Sam."

"Right for once. There, go to your seat, you'll be a man before your mother—that's certain!"

The English are casting shells for the Crimea three feet through, and weighing over a ton each. Mr. Nasmyth, the great founder, is also casting guns, which with their carriages, will weigh fifty tons each. They require 225 pounds of powder for a charge, and will one of the immense shells. A ton weight four miles.

Which is Which.—Mrs. Pepper got the better of the philosopher, the other day, in arguing whether women or men talk the most.

"You say a woman can talk a man almost to death," said Mrs. P., "but I'd like to know if Sampson didn't jaw a thousand Philistines to death?"

The philosopher gave in, and that very evening presented Mrs. P. with a ticket to a strawberry festival, where that respectable lady got into seventeen sharp disputes and enjoyed herself amazingly.

An Accidental Joke.—We met a fool in the forest who had the audacity to ask us the following conundrum—

Why cannot the proprietor of this forest sell his own timber? Because no one is allowed to cut when it's his own deal.

A Most Touching Proof.—A young lady, who had been herded many summers at the sea-side, was accused of dyeing her hair, which is of a rich raven black. She declared in the most indignant manner, that there was not a single lock of hair in the accusation—more than this, she generously offered to let any one examine her hair, to see how false it was.

Physiopathic System OF CURING CHRONIC OR LONG-GERING DISEASES.

The peculiar system of treatment which I have for some years back pursued in chronic or long standing diseases, with such extraordinary success, I have named the Physiopathic, that is, in plain English, the art of healing those diseases agreeably to the laws of nature. In an advertisement like the present, it cannot be expected that the principles upon which this system is founded can be announced.

The sphere of this system is not limited to any particular class of diseases or disorders, or to the diseases of particular organs as the eye, the ear, or the skin; but embraces the whole range of human chronic maladies, even affections of the mind, and congenital diseases or deformities, that is, those with which one is born. A great many of the affections which formerly required frightful, painful and often dangerous surgical operations are found to yield to its mild but powerful influence. It is emphatically the system for the successful treatment of all the strange, curious, obstinate pains, feelings, sensations, symptoms, disorganizations and complications of chronic disease, and a very large number of diseases which hitherto have been considered as absolutely incurable, have been and can be cured by it. It is in a word capable of curing all the inveterate diseases that any of the other systems is capable of curing, and a large number besides, in which either of them would be found quite powerless.

But does the practice prove the theory? I answer that it does, and this conclusively as the many who have already been cured by it can amply testify; but I suppose those who know myself personally, and the number is large and respectable in Marion county, will be content with my own word for it. I take no certificates of cures, deeming such, as only becoming practitioners who effect only chance cures; the Physiopathic method rests on a basis so solid that astonishing cures by it, appear as no great wonder, but only as the result of natural laws directed by professional acumen and skill.

The following are some of the diseases in which this new practice has been found most successful, to wit:—Epilepsy or fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Cataplexy, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Tic Douloureux, Spasms, Paralysis or Palsy, Wens and other Tumors or Lumps, some kinds of Cancer, Dropsy, Chronic Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Gout, Polypus, Scrofula, Chronic sore eyes, Blindness, Cataract, Amaurosis, Film over the eye, Deafness, Running from the ears, Ozana, Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Spitting of blood, Diseases of the heart, Dyspepsia, Gastrodynia, Liver diseases, Jaundice, Piles, Obstinate Constiveness, Chronic Diarrhoea, Diabetes, Gravel, Hip-joint diseases, White Swelling, Fistula, Night mare, Mental disorders or affections of the mind, &c. Likewise the most troublesome affections peculiar to females; and among the diseases of children I would particularly mention: Squinting, Stammering, Rickets including Humpback, Scaldhead, Prolapsus ani or falling down of the fundament; &c.

N. B. The medicines are prepared in a manner that is especially my own, and are remarkably pleasant, in fact almost tasteless. No cutting instruments or other harsh means used in the above cases.

Charges. including medicines, $3 to $5 per week, where I have not been out to see my patients. Boarding can be had in this pleasant Village on moderate terms, and a stage runs through here from Louisville, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Patients at a distance who are unable to come to see me, can, as the next best expedient, consult me by letter. On sending an exact statement of the history and symptoms of their case, mentioning also any other affections they may have, and at the same time enclosing a fee of not less than $3, (except in the case of the poor,) they will receive medicine with directions, by mail, post paid.

J. BARRY, M. D.
FAIRFIELD, Nelson Co. Ky. May 16th.

St. Joseph's College.

THIS Institution is situated in Bardonia, N. Y. The site is beautiful and healthy, the buildings are stately and very extensive. The playing grounds are spacious and handsomely set with trees. The professors are from twelve to fifteen in number, and exclusively devoted to the instruction of those entrusted to their care. Board, washing and tuition in all or any of the branches taught, per session of 10-12 months, $120.00. Extra charges, at the option of the parents, are

1. For the use of Instruments in Natural Philosophy or Chemistry, $1.00
 2. For the class of Mineralogy and Geology, 5.00
 3. For Music or Dancing, per quarter each, 10.00
 4. For Painting or Drawing, per quarter each, 5.00
 5. For Board in the College during the vacation, per week, 2.00
 6. For use of bed and bedding, per session, 8.00
- For further particulars apply by letter to the President.

N. B. The Collegiate exercises were resumed on the 2d of September.

PROSPECTUS OF

MARY'S COLLEGE.

NEAR LEBANON, MARION CO., KY.

This Literary Institution, founded in 1821, by the late Rev. WILLIAM BYRNE, and subsequently conducted for many years by the Jesuits, is now under the superintendence of the Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, who will always take means to provide a suitable Faculty for carrying it on with a view to promote the greatest public good. Under the auspices of its previous conductors, the Institution has been instrumental in widely diffusing the blessings of a religious education throughout Kentucky and the adjoining States. The steadiness of its patronage has been a constant evidence of the public approval. The beauty and salubrity of the situation, as well as the spaciousness and commodiousness of the College Buildings, are generally known. It will be the constant aim of the Faculty to adopt, so far as practicable, the plan which it was so well and so usefully conducted by its enlightened and benevolent Founder.

TERMS PER SESSION.

(INvariably in Advance.)
Board, including Washing, Mending, Shirts and Socks after washing, Fuel and Lights, together with Tuition in Orthography, Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Geography and Arithmetic, $42.00
Board, &c., (as above,) with use of the Globes, Algebra, Geometry, Surveying, Book-keeping, History, Rhetoric and Botany, or either of these branches, 47.00
Board, &c. (as above,) with Tuition in the Classics, Higher Mathematics and Philosophy, or either of them, 50.00
Tuition in French, (Extra,) 5.00
Bed and Bedding, when furnished, 3.00
Stationary, (Pens, Ink and Paper,) when furnished, 2.50
Physician's Fee and Medicines, per Session, 1.50
Text-books, and other necessary articles are furnished by the Agent of the College, at current retail prices;
For those who remain at the College during the vacations, there will be an additional charge for Board of 10.00
Music, per session, 10.00

Scott's Weekly Paper.

The Publishers of this large and popular Family Journal offers for the coming year, (1854) a combination of Literary attractions heretofore unattempted by any of the Philadelphia Weeklies. Among the new features will be a new and brilliant series of Original Romances by George Lippard, entitled "Legends of the Last Century." All who have read Mr. Lippard's celebrated Legends of the American Revolution published for fifty-six consecutive weeks in the Saturday Courier, will find these pictures of French and American History endowed with all the power and brilliancy of his previous productions. The first of a series of Original Novellettes, called "Morris Hartley, or the Knights of the Mystic Valley," by Harrison W. Ainsworth, is about to be commenced. It will be handsomely illustrated with 12 fine engravings, and its startling incidents cannot fail to elicit undivided praise. Emerson Bennett, the distinguished Novelist, the favorite of the West, and the author of some of the finest productions ever read, is also engaged to furnish a brilliant Novellette to follow the above. Mrs. Mary Andrews Demison, author of Home Pictures, Patience Worthington and her Grandmother, &c., will contribute a splendid Domestic Novellette, entitled the "Old Ivy Grove," and H. C. Watson an illustrated Story called the "Two Edged Knife"—a graphic picture of Early Life in Old Kentucky. To these will be added Original Contributions and selections from Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Clara Clairville, Little Libby, Grace Greenwood, and other distinguished writers; the news of the day, graphic editorials, full reports of the provision, money, and stock markets, letters from travelers at home and abroad, &c., &c.

TERMS.—One copy, one year, $2; two copies, one year, $3; four copies one year, $5; nine copies, one year, and one to the getter-up of the club, $10; twenty copies, one year, and one to the getter up of the club, $20. Address, A. SCOTT, Publisher, No. 111, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

BURR HARRISON, BEN. SELBY
HARRISON & SELBY,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

WILL attend to any business entrusted to them in the various Courts and the Courts of the adjoining counties. Particular attention will be given to collections.

Lebanon, Ky. Nov. 22

SPRING AND SUMMER

STYLE OF

HATS AND CAPS!!

My facilities for the purchasing of materials, and the manufacturing to order of SUPERIOR HATS, are not excelled in the Western Country.

I have on hand, and am constantly manufacturing to order

Black and White Beaver,

Nutria, Brush, Russia and Otter Hats, &c. Also the Spring style of Hats from the most celebrated houses in the city of New York. Together with a large assortment of Brown California, black and white Buena Vista and Wool Hats.

Men's and Youths' Panama Hats.

" " Double and single brim

" " Leguon.

" " Pedal Straw Hats.

" " Palm Leaf do

Infants' fancy Summer

Laocies' Riding Hats, of the latest New York and Parisian Styles

Kossuth Hats, &c., &c.

The above goods will be found equal in quality, and fully as LOW in PRICE as the same article can be bought for in Louisville or any other city market.

The Patrons of the house, and the public at large, are particularly invited to call and examine the assortment.

Hats of any particular shape made to order at short notice.

LEONARD EDELEN

Lebanon, May 5.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS.

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,

No. 54 Gold street, New York.

CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called

"THE FARMER'S GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of plowing, planting, laying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of Agriculture.

This work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).

The Edinburgh Review (Whig).

The North British Review (Free-Church).

The Westminster Review (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Land," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, AFTER IT HAS BEEN ISSUED BY MESSRS. SCOTT & CO., so that subscribers to the reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the EARLIEST reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS.

Per ann.
For any one of the four Reviews $3 00
or any two do 5 00
or any three do 6 00
For all four of the Reviews 8 00
For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews 9 00
For Blackwood and four Reviews 10 00
For Farmer's Guide (complete in 22 Nos. $5 00
(Payment to be made in all cases in advance.)

CLUBBING.

A discount of twenty-five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: 4 copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; 4 copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

Orders from Clubs must be sent direct to the publishers, as no discount from these prices can be allowed to Agents.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,

79 FULTON STREET, NEW YORK.

Entrance 54 Gold street.

Money, current in the States where issued, will be received at par.

Remittances and communications should be always addressed post-paid or franked, to the Publishers.

5,000 POUNDS of clean Linen and Cotton RAGS wanted at the Printing Office, for which the highest price

CASH will be paid.

may 5th

More Rags &c to

W. W. JACK,

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder.

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S

PEPSIN,

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR

GASTRIC JUICE!

Prepared from Rennet, or the Fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., Philadelphia, Pa. "DIGESTION" Such is the true meaning of the word PEPsin. It is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a true Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is Nature's own Remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no Alcohol, Bitters, Acids, or Nauseous Drugs. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a water cracker without acute distress. Beware of Drugged Imitations. Pepsin is not a Drug. Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Scientific Evidence.

The Scientific Evidence upon which this Remedy is based is the highest degree curious and remarkable. Call on the Agent and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, from Leibig's Animal Chemistry; Dr. Combe's Physiology of Digestion; Dr. Pereira on Food and Diet; Dr. John W. Draper of New York University; Prof. Douglass's Physiology; Prof. Silliman, of Yale College; Dr. Carpenter's Physiology; &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United States.

Pepsin in Fluid and Powder.

DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN is prepared in powder and in fluid form—and in prescription form for the use of Physicians. The powder will be sent by mail free of postage, for one dollar sent to Dr. Houghton, Philadelphia.

OBIS. RVE. THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy-right and Trade mark secured.

Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medicine. Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

AGENTS.

L. H. NOBLE, Lebanon.

J. L. SISK, Harrodsburg.

D. D. Woods, Bardonia.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

This Magazine has already reached a regular monthly issue of more than 100,000 copies; and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The Publishers have endeavored, by a well-directed use of the abundant resources at their command, to render it the most attractive and most useful Magazine for popular reading in the world; and the extent to which their efforts have been successful is indicated by the fact, that it has attained a greater circulation than any similar periodical ever issued.

Special efforts will be made to render it still more interesting and valuable during the present year. In addition to the usual ample and choice selections of Foreign and Domestic Literature, an increased amount of Original Matter, by the ablest American Writers, will be hereafter furnished. The number of Pictorial embellishments will be increased; still greater variety will be given to its literary contents; its Editorial and Miscellaneous departments will be still farther enlarged and strengthened; and no labor or expense will be spared to render it in every way, and in all respects, still more worthy of the extraordinary favor with which it has been received.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a better quality, in a more elegant style, and at a cheaper rate, than any other publication.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail for three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, either of the Publishers, Booksellers, or Periodical Agents.

Each number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns, once year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the month. The volumes commence with the numbers for June and December; but Subscriptions may commence with any number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers at three dollars a year or twenty-five cents a number. Numbers from the commencement can be supplied at any time.

Address "Harper's Magazine, New York," post paid.

JOB PRINTING!!

Having opened a large and complete JOB OFFICE, in LEBANON Marion County, Ky., I offer my services to the public generally. I am ready at all times to do up on the shortest notice, on the most reasonable terms, and in a manner to give entire satisfaction.

BOOKS, PAMPHLETS, CARDS, BLANKS, BALL TICKETS, BILL-POSTERS, BILL-HEADS, &c., &c.

Should you want anything done in my line, just bring it along.

W. W. JACK,

CABINET MAKING.

A. S. HARDY. W. T. HARDY.

COPARTNERSHIP.

WE respectfully call the attention of the Public to the fact that the undersigned have entered into Copartnership in the manufacture of CABINET FURNITURE in its various branches.

They will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Furniture of the neatest and newest style; such as Bureaus, Secretaries, Wardrobes, Book Cases, French and Couch Bedsteads, Card, Center, and Pier Tables, Sofas, Spring and Cane seat Chairs; and every variety of furniture in their line of business. They are also prepared to make Common, and Spring Mattresses.

We confidently believe that our work will compare favorably with any in this or any other market, and invite purchasers to examine our stock before buying elsewhere. Our prices are as low as they are anywhere.

The senior partner returns his thanks to the public for past favors, and hopes they will continue their patronage to the firm.

Coffin making, and Funeral calls with pleasure attended to on the shortest notice.

A. S. HARDY & SON.

June 1, 1855.

1853

ELEVENTH YEAR

OF THE

LOUISVILLE

WEEKLY COURIER!

Acknowledged by general consent to be the Largest, Best and Cheapest Newspaper in the West.

In issuing the Eleventh Prospectus of the Louisville Weekly Courier, we have great pleasure in announcing that Mr. Wm. D. Gallagher, Esq., has purchased an interest in the establishment, and he will hereafter be associated with us in its management. Mr. Gallagher is widely known as an able political and literary writer and a gentleman of cultivated taste, and being thoroughly Western in his education, habits and associations, and conversant with our Railroad and Manufacturing interests, we flatter ourselves that he will add largely to the value and interest of the Courier, and render it still more acceptable to its thousands of readers in every section of the great Mississippi Valley.

The Louisville Weekly Courier; Edited and Published by

W. D. GALLAGHER & W. N. HALDEMAN, Is one of the largest, handsomest and best papers in the Union, and for the quantity and quality of matter it contains and the great care taken in its preparation, it is beyond all question

The Che